IMPROVEMENT FUND TRUSTEES ISSUE COMPLETE STATEMENT ABOUT TURNING OVER LANDS

NOTHING IS SAID, HOWEVER,
ABOUT WHETHER THE TOMOKA
BASIN IS TO BE IMPROVED

CLAIM IS MADE BY STATE OF-FICERS THAT CONTRACT HAS BEEN FINISHED AND PEOPLE SHOULD BE SATISFIED.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 31.—

Because of the protests which have followed the action of the trustees of the state internal improvement fund in delivering to the Florida Coast Line Canal and Transportation company the escrow deed held by the First National Bank of St. Augustine, the following statement has been issued by the trustees of the fund:

The Florida Coast Line Canal and Transportation company was organized in 1881, under the general laws for the incorporation of railroads and canals, for the purpose of constructing a canal from St. Augustine to Miami, using the navigable waterways along the line between these two points. The legislature of Florida at different times from 1881 to 1903 recognized the importance of the canal and made a large land grant to the canal company amounting to 3840 acres per mile for the entire distance from St. Augustine to Miami.

The trustees of the internal improvement fund at different times between 1881 and 1906 recognized the work which was being done by the canal company, set aside large areas of land as reserve for the canal company and executed deeds for many thousand acres of land to the canal company claimed by it to have been earned under the above mentioned acts of the legislature. On Dec. 1, 1906, during the Broward administration, a dispute arose between the trustees of the internal improvement fund and the canal company as to the quantity of land that the canal company was entitled to receive under the legislative grants.

After considerable discussion of the matter the trustees and the canal company entered into an agreement whereby it was agreed that canal company immediately 100,000 the trustees should convey to the acres of land, which land was to be transferred to a trustee and sold, the proceeds from the sale of which were to be used, as far as might be necessary, for the payment of taxes and assessments on the lands of the company, and to construct and build an additional canal between St. Augustine and the St. Johns river; that two deeds for approximately 230,000 acres were to be executed and delivered, in escrow, to Bion H. Barnett, to be delivered to the canal company as follows: The first of the deeds to be delivered when the canal company should have completed its canal between the Mantanzas and Halifax riv-

The Daily News extends to its readers, patrons and friends the compliments of the season and best wishes for a Prosperous and Happy New Year.

ARMY OF DETECTIVES AFTER WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER TODAY

TRYING TO SERVE WEALTHY MAN WITH SUBPOENA TO AP-PEAR BEFORE THE MONEY
TRUST COMMITTEE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—A small army of detectives under Sergeant Al Arms Riddle of the house of representatives at Washington, have today been placed as guards around the town and country homes of William Rockefeller in an endeavor to serve him with a subpoena to testify before the Pujo congressional committee investigating the money trust.

Detectives are also watching the adjoining mansion on Fifth avenue occupied by the sons-in-law of the oil magnate. Each one of the detectives is bearing a duplicate copy of the subpoena and the officers are stationed 100 feet apart.

Mrs. D. A. Blodgett and children and Mrs. Matthews are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Porcher at Cocoa.

CASTRO NOT ALLOWED TO LAND HERE

ARRIVES AT NEW YORK AND IS TAKEN TO ELLIS ISLAND

FORMER DICTATOR OF VENEZUELA WILL PROBABLY BE TURNED BACK AS AN UNDESIRABLE CITIZEN.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—Cipriano Castro, former dictator of Venezuela, arrived here aboard the French liner Touraine today. He was met by the immigration officers and taken to Ellis Island, against his indignant protests.

Here the board of inquiry will examine him to ascertain if he is suffering with an incurable disease, as has been reported. If this report is found to be erroneous he will probably be turned back as an "undesirable citizen."

The steamer Biscayne arrived here from Jacksonville Monday evening and departed again this morning on her return.

UNION MEN REMOVED TO PENITENTIARY

SPECIAL TRAIN TO CARRY
SENTENCED MEN TO PRISON

DOORS TO COACHES ARE KEPT LOCKED AND WOMEN ARE REFUSED PERMISSION TO ACCOMPANY THE TRAIN.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 31.—Thirty-three men of the union labor left this city at noon today for Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, to enter the federal penitentiary and begin their sentences.

United States Marshal Schmidt was in charge of the special train. The doors to the coaches were locked and none of the prisoners will be permitted to leave the cars. Many of the wives and women relatives pleaded for permission to accompany the prisoners, but they were forbidden.

E. L. Gunn, manager of the electric light plant, was a New Smyrna visitor on business Monday.

30 PERSONS HURT IN RIOT IN CONNECTION WITH STRIKE OF THE GARMENT WORKERS

UNION LEADERS SAY 100,000 EMPLOYEES HAVE OBEYED THE ORDER FOR GENERAL WALKOUT

ORGANIZER SAYS EMPLOYERS HAVE HIRED THUGS TO DIS-HONOR AND HUMILIATE WO-MEN STRIKERS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—With the garment workers strike 24 hours old the contestants have settled down today to a grim struggle for victory.

The union officials declare that 100,000 men and women have obeyed the strike order, and the employers assert that half that number have quit their places.

Women strikers have been withdrawn from picket duty today by order of General Organizer Schweizer, who declares that the employers have hired thugs who have dishonored and humiliated the women pickets. The union officials declare there will be no sign of violence among the strikers, but they are determined to win their fight for shorter hours and better living conditions.

Rioting Is Begun—

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—A total of 30 persons, most of them women, were injured this afternoon in the first serious rioting in connection with the garment workers' strike.

About 600 engaged in the rioting near the plant of the Smith-Gray company at Williamsburg. The mob surrounded the building and had begun to hurl stones and missiles, when the police charged the mob and succeeded in dispersing the strikers, although the strikers fought with unexpected fury. The officers were compelled to use their clubs vigorously.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY TENDERED MRS. BRANCH.

Mrs. W. C. Branch was delightfully surprised Monday evening at her home, the Willmer on South Palm-metto avenue, by about 50 of her friends and acquaintances, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

The surprise was so complete that Mr. Branch had to be hunted up and brought home, having accepted an invitation for the evening. A lady guest at the Willmer who was in the secret had seen to the providing of refreshments which were served in the dining room and added to the pleasure of the evening, as did also music and games.

The friends taking part in the surprise presented Mrs. Branch with a beautiful water color picture. Upon departing for their homes they wished her many happy returns of the anniversary and were extended a cordial invitation to come again.

WAS SOME GRABBER HIMSELF

Old Hebrew Had to Contend With Greedy "Irishers" but He Got the Turkey.

"When it comes to grabbing for things, he is there with both hands," remarked Alderman William O'Malley, speaking of a certain shrewd merchant. "It reminds me of a story.

"One of these good, old fashioned Hebrews had occasion to attend a party, and, naturally his folks were curious to find out how he fared.

"There was a pile of Irishers there, he said. 'There was the O'Malleys, the McCarthys, the McGinnisses. You never in all your life saw so many Irishers together at one time except, of course, on a police force.

"And then when they brought in the dinner, those Irishers showed that they were the biggest hogs ever. There was some fine turkey, and the way they went for that turkey was scandalous. They stabbed here and they stabbed there with their knives and forks, until you couldn't see a thing of the turkey except the knives and forks stabbing at them.

"You poor uncle," said his little niece, sympathetically. 'They must have been awful hogs. Didn't you get anything to eat?'

"Sure I did, but my hands were all cut up."—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Dangerous animal.

An Ohio man and his wife with a couple of friends went out for a run in the country the other day in their motor car. The trip was quite a long one and they arranged to have lunch on out in the woods. As they neared their destination a stop was made and one of the party made his way into the bush on the side of a hill to get water. He was gone an unusually long time, and on his return explained his delay by saying: "There was only a trickling stream coming from the spring, so I had to wait. There was a ram down there in the bushes, and it seemed to be taking up all the water."

"A what?" inquired the hostess.

"A ram—hydraulic ram."

"My!" she said with some surprise. "Weren't you afraid of the little beast?"

Painting Watch Hands.

Near the jeweler's front window sat a young woman painting with an exceedingly delicate brush.

"She is painting the hands on those black open-faced watches," the jeweler said. "A lot of people who buy black watches complain that they cannot see the gold hands against the black background. It has never occurred to the managers to make the watches in the first place with white hands, so when the customer's requests it the young woman paints the hands white."

MME. LUIS F. COREA

Mme. Luis F. Corea, who recently attended the wedding of her brother, Robert V. Fleming, in Washington, is an American and at the age of eighteen was married to the Nicaraguan minister to Washington despite the protests of her family. He was Zelaya's representative, and at the end of the Zelaya regime left the diplomatic service.

BLACK PATTI COMPANY OPENS NEW YEAR HERE

The Black Patti Musical Comedy company will come to the New Daytona Theatre tomorrow night in the latest and best of musical comedies, "Captain Jasper."

This production is teeming full of funny doings and sayings and every member of the company is given a chance and you will certainly see something doing. The musical numbers are fresh and of the kind that keep you wondering what will be next. The comedy is never lagging, and has a plot that runs all through the show.

CUT RATE FOR AN AMERICAN
 Judge Donnelly's Amusing Experience
 With the Sharp Irish Cab Driver in Dublin.

Chief Justice Joseph G. Donnelly of the civil court, in illustrating an Irish-man's idea of wit, told a story of an adventure with an Irish hack driver in Dublin, relates the Milwaukee Wisconsin.

"I asked him how much he would take to drive me to Hotel —," he said. "The driver looked at me and said: 'You are from the states, aren't you?'"

"Well," he said, "since you are from the states, and I've driven nothing but Englishmen all day, I'll drive you to the hotel for three shillings."

"As I thought that was reasonable, I got into the hack. We drove on and on for hours, over hills and across streams, until we finally got to the hotel. While driving, I wondered at the difference between this hack driver and those in America, and wondered what an American hack driver would say if I were to hand him three shillings for such a long ride."

"I went to bed and slept sound that night. When I woke up early in the morning, I went down and out on the front steps. I almost fainted, for directly in front of the hotel was the self-same depot that I arrived at on the train. I suppose the hack driver thought he was having a pile of fun while driving me around the city and country."

The KITCHEN
CUPBOARD

NEW YEAR'S CAKES.
 WITH the simple refreshments served to callers on New Year's Day small cakes, such as are served at ordinary afternoon teas, are nice. Indeed, a cup of tea and cake with bonbons are quite enough to offer unless you are receiving formally.
 Fancy sandwiches or a salad may be served if you wish.

Tempting Tea Cakes.
 Tea Biscuit.—Take two cups of pastry flour, two teaspoons of baking powder, one teaspoon of salt, two tablespoons of butter, two thirds cup of milk. After the flour has been sifted add baking powder and salt and sift again, then rub in butter.
 Combine this and the milk, then take on a lightly floured board. With a floured rolling pin roll into a sheet a little more than an inch thick, cut with small round cutter and bake in greased flat tins.

Fruit Cakes.—Take two cups of graham flour and sift with two cups of white flour, four rounded teaspoons of baking powder, one teaspoon of salt and one-half cup of sugar. Mix in one cup of seeded raisins and one cup of chopped walnuts, then add one egg well beaten with two cups of milk. Half fill buttered muffin pans and bake twenty-five minutes in a quick oven.

Cream Rolls.—Take a pint of flour, two heaping teaspoons baking powder, two of sugar, one of salt. Sift all together. Break one egg in half a cupful of cream or rich milk and stir in the flour. Then add milk enough to make a thin batter. Bake in roll tins until a light brown.

Novel Nut Pastries.
 Nut Wafers.—Take a half cupful of butter, cream it and add gradually, beating constantly, one cupful of sugar. Then add two eggs well beaten, two squares of melted chocolate, one cupful of chopped English walnut meats, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful of vanilla and two-thirds cupful of bread flour. Drop by teaspoons, about two inches apart, on a buttered pan and bake in a moderate oven.

Spiced Macaroons.—Take hickory nut meats, pound fine and add mixed ground spice and nutmeg. Make frosting as for cakes, stir meats and spices in, putting in enough to make it convenient to handle. Flour the hands, make the mixture into balls the size of nutmegs, lay them on buttered tins, giving room to spread. Bake in a quick oven.

 phone pole to the roof of the building, the scene of the trouble. Taking off his coat, he folded it on the roof as a protection against the current, but as he stepped from the pole to the roof he received a severe shock which caused him to lose his balance, and he fell to the ground, a distance of 20 feet, landing on his head, which caused almost instant death.

Lemons as Toilet Article.
 Nearly every woman uses a lemon in her toilet preparations. For removing stains or freckles or bleaching a neck made yellow by high collars there is nothing better. Only a very little lemon is needed at one time. To keep a lemon from drying up and becoming useless place it under an ordinary glass tumbler on the toilet stand and it will not wither and dry out.

ers and should have completed one-half of the work necessary to construct the new canal between St. Augustine and the St. Johns river. The second deed to be delivered when that portion of the canal between St. Augustine and the St. Johns river shall have been completed. The canal company agreed with the trustees that the company would cut a new canal between St. Augustine and the St. Johns river so as to make a continuous inland waterway from Jacksonville to Miami and in addition thereto, to pay the trustees the sum of $50,000 in cash.

This contract was entered into between the trustees and the canal company at the time when the canal company had obtained an injunction against the trustees from selling or conveying lands claimed by the canal company, and at a time when there was considerable dispute between the trustees and the canal company as to the quantity of lands which the latter was entitled to under the acts of the legislature. By this contract the Broward administration settle the question of land grants with the canal company and cancelled and satisfied all the claims of the canal company against the state. It secured from the canal company $50,000 in cash and a contract for the completing of a new canal from St. Augustine to the St. Johns river.

In November, 1911, the canal company, finding that they were short of funds with which to prosecute the work, appeared before the trustees, and requested the trustees to allow them to sell a certain amount of the land contained in one of the escrow deeds held by Bion H. Barnett. The trustees and the canal company arrived at an agreement at that time whereby the canal company were to be allowed to sell certain lands contained in said deed at a stipulated price per acre, the proceeds of the sale to be held in escrow by the said Bion H. Barnett, to occupy precisely the same status as the land in the deed. The money derived from sale of these lands to be expended solely upon the canal work under the direction of, and the bills for the work to be approved by an engineer to be designated by the trustees, and in addition to the above requirements the trustees exacted of the canal company that the sum of $50,000 should be expended in the restoration of the canal south of Daytona, the agreement entered into by the Broward administration in 1906 requiring no work to be done upon this portion of the canal, thereby presumably accepting this portion of the canal as being completed.

About one month ago the representatives of the canal company again appeared before the trustees and requested that the remaining deed then held in escrow by the First National bank of St. Augustine—by mutual agreement this escrow deed having been transferred from Bion H. Barnett to the First National bank of St. Augustine—be delivered, the canal company claiming that they had completed the work on the canal as called for by the contract of 1906. The trustees thereupon caused an examination to be made of that portion of the canal contracted for in 1906, and the engineer of the trustees reporting that the work had been completed with the exception of a slight amount of work to be done within a two or three mile strip between the Mantanzas and Halifax rivers, the trustees proposed to the canal company, which proposal was accepted, that in consideration of the canal company depositing in escrow with the First National bank of St. Augustine the sum of $25,000 to be used in completing the canal between St. Augustine and Daytona; and further placing in escrow the sum of $50,000 to be expended solely upon the canal from Daytona to Miami, under the same conditions and stipulations as the previous amount placed in escrow, the trustees consented to instruct the First National bank of St. Augustine, when the $75,000 referred to above was deposited with said bank, to deliver said deed to said canal company.

It will thus be seen that in addition to the original requirement exacted of the canal company by the legislature, the Broward administration secured a canal from St. Augustine to the St. Johns river and $50,000 in cash additional, and the Gilchrist, or present administration, in addition to the requirements of the contract entered into by the canal company and the Broward administration, in 1906, have secured the sum of $100,000 to be expended upon the portion of the canal from Daytona south, which seems to have been tacitly accepted as completed under the contract of the canal company and the Broward administration, in 1906.

The above gives an accurate, brief, but concise statement of the actual facts and conditions connected with the work of the Florida Coast Line Canal and Transportation company from the time of its inception to the present, and the trustees believe that from reading the above facts no fair minded or unprejudiced person will for one moment think or consider but what the trustees have exacted, and, in fact, received from the canal company more than the requirements of the contract between the canal company and the trustees called for, and that the trustees have done everything in their power to protect the interests of the people along the route of the above named canal, considering the many hindrances and obstructions placed upon the trustees by the legislature and courts of the state.

War Time Coffee.

This was the formula of a coffee mixture that sold freely in the days of gross adulteration during and immediately subsequent to the Civil war, before matters began to right themselves as they did without the help of food laws:

Best Java coffee one pound; rye, three pounds. Carefully clean the rye from all bad grains, wash to remove dust, drain off the water and put the grain into the roaster, carefully stirring to brown it evenly. Roast the coffee separately. Grind the mixture and pack in airtight containers. An essence of coffee was prepared by boiling down molasses until hard and then grinding it to a powder and mixing it with a half pound of good ground Java coffee, using four pounds of the powdered molasses.—From the Ideal Grocer.

Crab Industry in Japan.

Less than three years ago Japan began to can crab meat for export. Now there are over a hundred canneries, and last year the output was 2,160,000 cans.

HEAR CONCERT BY BAND

BUSINESS MEN, CITIZENS AND VISITORS ENJOY PLEASANT EVENING AT HOME OF THE COMMODORE.

As guests of Commodore C. G. Burgoyne at his spacious home on North Beach street last night, about 80 business men, citizens and visitors were privileged to listen to the initial concert of the season rendered by the Saracina Royal Italian band, and, incidentally, enjoy the hospitality of Mr. Burgoyne in other ways than listening to the band music. The band music, as well as the selections rendered by Mr. Burgoyne on the pipe organ and piano, were thoroughly enjoyed by those present, and the commodore's reputation as a hospitable dispenser of the best in the line of refreshments was considerably enlarged by the collation served to his guests last night.

The concert by the band proved beyond question that the people of Daytona are to enjoy the best in the line of band music throughout the remainder of the winter season, and that Mr. Burgoyne's selection of the Saracina organization was a wise one.

TREATY WITH RUSSIA WILL SOON EXPIRE

INSTRUMENT DRAWN UP IN 1832
COMES TO AN END TONIGHT

GIVEN OUT AT CAPITAL TODAY THAT THE WHOLE MATTER
WILL BE LEFT TO THE WILSON ADMINISTRATION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Through the expiration of the Russian treaty of 1832 at midnight tonight, the commerce between that country and the United States, estimated at about $50,000,000 annually, will be placed in a position of uncertainty amounting to jeopardy.

No formal or informal understanding between the two governments looking toward the continuance and regulation of this international trade, has been made since the treaty abrogated by President Taft and it was learned this afternoon that the whole matter will be left for the action of the incoming Wilson administration.

At the state department it was said that undoubtedly the general arbitration laws governing trade and navigation will apply, but just how far they will tend to relieve the situation they do not pretend to predict.
It was pointed out, however, that the two nations are on the best of terms and that the comity between nations would guarantee American citizens in Russia against theft and destruction, though it would form no insurance against discrimination.

That any retaliatory policy that might be adopted would bear more heavily on American firms than Russian business organizations was readily admitted in diplomatic circles. Th ratio of harm that such a policy would work upon international traders would be about two to one with the United States on the heavy end. This is made evident by the export and import statistics between the two countries recently made public. These showed that the United States yearly sells about twice as much to Russia as Russia does to the United States.

The abrogated treaty embraces 13 articles. The first relates to the mutual protection of citizens of one country while sojourning in the other,
"on condition of their submitting to the laws and ordinances there prevailing." It was Russia's failure to adhere to the American construction of this article which led to the termination of the treaty.

Article 11 has to do with the exemption of vessels from tonnage and lighthouse dues. So long as Russia does not make exactions of this character upon American vessels, the United States is bound by its laws not to do so.

Article III provides that Russian goods imported into this country in Russian vessels shall pay no higher duties than when imported in American vessels, and vice versa. Article IV is supplemental to the third article.

Article V deals with exports as does article three with imports.

Article VI relates to the subject of maximum and minimum tariffs, but trouble in this respect is obviated by reason of the tariff agreement made with Russia under the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill.

Article VII reserves the coastwise trade of the nation to the vessels of that nation.

Article VIII specifies the relationship of consuls maintained by each country in the other and enables them to carry on the business of their offices for the government they represent.

Article IX enables consuls to have jurisdiction in the settlement of differences between masters and crews of the vessels of one country when in the waters of the other and provides for calling for local assistance in making arrests and preserving the peace.

Article X provides for the administration of estates of deceased persons in one country by the consuls of that country. So far as Russian consuls in this country are concerned state laws will enable them to continue their duties in this respect, but there is uncertainty as to what extent Russia will permit American consuls to exercise the right which has heretofore prevailed.

Mr. Holden had E. J. Mills cater for the occasion and a bountiful supply of good things to eat was provided, dinner being served at the upper cabin on the Tomoka, where a good time was enjoyed by the party as well as on the trip up the river and returning. The day was balmy and pleasant, just suited for a river excursion.

Mr. Holden is a prominent busi-

EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOL ENJOYS CHRISTMAS TREE.

The members of the Episcopal Sunday school, some 30 or more girls and boys, enjoyed a Christmas tree Monday evening in the guild hall on Orange avenue, the affair being under the management of Prof. and Mrs. F. E. Sheppard, who have been in charge of the Sunday school since Rev. Robt. A. Tuft, rector of St. Mary's church returned from the north.

There was no Christmas tree last year and the children could scarcely be made to believe they were to have one this Christmas, but were delighted with the prospect and thoroughly enjoyed its fulfillment, which was made possible by the generosity of Mrs. J. E. Thompson of Daytona Beach, and others who contributed for the purpose, and the unfailing interest and zeal of Prof.
and Mrs. Sheppard in the work of preparing the handsome tree which was provided by W. M. Guthrie.

In addition to the usual candy, etc., an attractive present was provided for each member of the Sunday school and the young people enjoyed a delightful time in contemplation of the beautiful tree and in the distribution of the gifts.

DICK TURPIN
was a robber who was very justly hanged for his crimes. There are so many legends woven about
his sordid career
that it is hard at this late day to sift the facts from the fiction. Some historians say he was a fascinating daredevil. Others say he was merely a stupid ruffian. It is due to this variance as well as to the strangeness of his alleged exploits that Turpin figures as a historic blackguard. Here—as well as truth can be separated from fancy—is the usually accepted story of his life:

Richard—or Dick—Turpin was born at Hampstead, England, in September, 1709. His parents were poor. They apprenticed him in early youth to a butcher. But Dick took a more than neighborly interest in other people's cattle. At last he was caught stealing steers that had been sent to his employer for butchering. To steal cattle in those days was a "hanging offense." Turpin fled for his life, scoring the first of his many escapes from justice.

He joined a gang of thieves and became their leader. But he soon tired of associating with rascals of duller brains than his own. Moreover, their blunders or treachery might add to his own danger. So he left the gang after he had learned all the villainies its members could teach him.

Sometimes, in later days, he would employ one of his old comrades as an accomplice. But most of his crimes were committed single-handed. He became a highwayman and his name quickly spread terror throughout the whole countryside.

Railroads and telegraph were not yet invented. News traveled slowly.
So did everything. Now and then a message or letter was carried fast across country, on horseback, with relays of speedy horses waiting from point to point. But the usual mode of travel was over heavy roads in a heavier stage coach.

There were lines of stage coaches drawn by four horses. Passengers filled the roof and body of the vehicle, while the driver, armed with a blunderbuss, sat beside the driver to protect the lives and valuables the coach carried. Gentlemen of wealth had private coaches in which they traveled between their country homes and London.

Naturally, the coaches often held large sums of money and jewelry, and the passengers were in the habit of carrying plenty of cash with them.
All this made the stage coaches prime targets for highwaymen.
A coach would round a turn in the road to confront a masked horseman whose leveled pistols threatened the guard even, while his disguised voice croaked: "Stand and deliver!" Often the masked man would overawe the passengers, make them line up in the road, rob them and the coach, then jump on his horse and gallop away with his plunder. Before the police could be notified he was usually many miles away.

Turpin was one of the most daring of these highwaymen. Not content with robbing passengers, he would often play quaint tricks on them. If his demands for money were resisted he had no scruples about sending a pistol bullet through his opponent's brain. Altogether there was much brutal crime and little poetry about him.

The most picturesque of Turpin's feats was his famous ride from London to York—an adventure whose truth some writers doubt. Dick had committed an atrocious robbery near London. Knowing he was recognized, he set out to secure an alibi. Mounting his mare, Black Bess, he galloped to York. The distance was 200 miles over bad roads. The journey usually took four days. Dick made it in five hours, and his mare dropped dead as he reached York. When Turpin was arrested for the London robbery he proved by reliable witnesses that he had been loafing about the York streets fifteen hours after the crime—a fact that seemed to forbid his having reached there by natural means. Therefore, it was decided he must be innocent.

Turpin was hanged at York April 19, 1729.

Machine to Guard Flocks.
Virgin Connell, a sheepman of Antelope Valley, has invented a novel device for protecting his lambs from coyotes.

It consists of an electrical device that sets off an explosion every hour and rids any given locality of coyotes.
The timing of the explosions was set at 60 minute intervals after a close study of the traits of the destructive animals. The explosion causes a hasty retreat and before the coyote decides on another attack he is again scared off.—Carson City Correspond-

FAMILY'S WELLSpring OF JOY

Hope of the Household Has Some Fun With His Anxious Relatives and a Safety Pin.

Uncle John flew down the back stairs! So great was his momentum that before he could stop himself he had gone half-way across the kitchen, and banged into the kitchen table. Turning, he rushed out of the kitchen, through the back hall, and out at the door, which he slammed behind him. Meanwhile Ellen, the nursemaid, stood before the telephone, and wildly flopped her hands—except when at regular intervals she needed them to take down the receiver in order to see if the line was still busy.

Upstairs a red-faced, squalling baby kicked and squirmed in the arms of its distracted mother. This strangling infant was the unhappy cause of all the excitement, for, so Ellen affirmed with tears in her eyes, it had swallowed a safety-pin. Although, to the mother, it seemed hours, it was in reality but a short time before Uncle John, puffing like a steam engine, returned. Behind him came the baby's father, wild-eyed and pale. At the same instant the doorbell frantically announced the doctor.

All three men tore up stairs into the nursery, where they formed a semi-circle round the human storm-center. Suddenly the baby stopped screaming to gaze in wide-eyed astonishment at the frantic men before him. Then he looked down at the floor, and murmured, "Pitty! pitty!" pointed to a large, bright safety-pin, which lay near at hand, provokingly innocent, on the nursery rug.—Youth's Companion.

Deduction.

"What are you grouchy about?" asked the young man who wears his hat over one eye.

"Your manners—" suggested Mr. Mildboy.

"But you told me to make myself at home in your office."

"True. And I was merely sympathizing with you. I am sure that with your aggressive style of speech and your general lack of repose your home life cannot be happy."

Housewarming.

"Moved into your cozy flat, eh?"

"Going to have a housewarming?"

"That's what I'm just going to ask the landlord to speak to the janitor about."

Up-to-Date Burglars.

Burglars who forced an entrance into a jeweler's office in New York a few days ago carried with them an electrically driven drill for boring into the safe, which they proceeded to use successfully after connecting it with an electric light socket.

MANKIND IS STILL MEDIEVAL

Woman Lawyer Says the Attitude Toward Her Sex Is Unjust and Barbaric.

That legislation tending to make marriage more difficult and divorce easier would lessen some of the evils of the social system was the opinion put forward in a talk on "The Law and the Lady," by Miss Mary Wood, a lawyer, at the Woman's Forum.

Miss Wood began her paper with a history of the attitude of the English lawmakers toward woman, touching on various statutes that now seem eccentric, such as the provision of the middle ages, which limited the cost of the cloth in a woman's dress to twelve pence a yard.

"And yet that was no more barbaric," said Miss Wood, "than the bill of the Massachusetts legislator, who would have put a ban on the skirts that were less than six inches below the knee, décolleté gowns and fancy clocks on stockings. The bill was killed. I don't know what happened to the man who fathered it."—New York Evening Post.

INTERESTING RIDES AND DRIVES POINTS WORTH VISITING

OCEAN BEACH—excellent motor road for 10 miles and south 13 miles to Mosquito Inlet and the Government Lighthouse at Ponce Park. The beach is the most magnificent in the world.

BEED, KNOX & BEED ORANGE GROVE—18 miles, via Ormond, is one of the largest groves in Volusia county and is well worth seeing; can be reached by motor over fairly good road; can also be reached by boat.

NUMBER NINE ORANGE GROVE—a large grove, passed on the way to the Beed, Knox & Beed grove, is 12 miles from Daytona.

NEW SMYRNA—16 miles from Daytona, over an excellent hard surface road; this drive is said to be the prettiest in the state. At New Smyrna are the ruins of an ancient fort and other historical spots, left by the colony of Andrew Turnbull.

OLD SPANISH MISSION—2 miles west of New Smyrna, reached by motor over good road. This mission is without authentic history but by many it is contended that this is the church built by Columbus on his second voyage to America. The altar is still extant, but at a later date the building was used as a sugar mill.

SPANISH SUGAR MILL—2 miles west of Port Orange and about 8 miles from Daytona; the machinery is still in a good state of preservation, although the mill is presumed to have been built and operated by the early Spanish settlers.

GOVERNMENT LIGHTHOUSE—at Ponce Park, 12 miles from Daytona, is reached by boat or by motor on the ocean beach.

MAMMOTH TREE—4 miles from Daytona; an abnormally large tree, reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

DELAND—25 miles from Daytona; the county seat of Volusia county and seat of John B. Stetson university; a very picturesque city, reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

TOMOKA RIVER—The scenic stream of Florida; reached by excursion boats which leave Daytona daily and run to the navigable head of the stream, 26 miles from the city. Generally a number of alligators may be seen in their native haunts. This is a trip no tourist should miss.

DELEON SPRINGS, 28 miles from Daytona; mammoth spring that throws out thousands of gallons of water a minute; a delightful bathing pool, and picturesque scenery. Spring is situated in an old plantation. Reached by motor over good road; a nice trip for a picnic party.

OAK HILL—hamlet, 10 miles south of New Smyrna; several orange groves in the locality; reached by motor over hard-surfaced road.

ORMOND—six miles from Daytona; here is located the Ormond hotel and a pretty town; nearby are the ruins of Spanish sugar mills.

TURTLE MOUND—26 miles south of Daytona; reached by boat; a mammoth mound of oyster shells supposed to have been left by a prehistoric race of people. Pottery and other antiquities have been discovered in excavating the shell.

PORT ORANGE—an attractive town 6 miles south of Daytona, can be reached by motor over hard-surfaced road; or the trip one way may be made by the road and crossing the Halifax river on the Port Orange bridge, the return can be made on the ocean beach.

CLARENDON GOLF LINKS—2 miles from Daytona and immediately north of the Hotel Clarendon at Seabreeze; the links are now in good condition. The Hotel Clarendon bears the distinction of being the only fireproof winter tourist hotel in the world.

GENERALLY, you may motor in any direction from Daytona and find places and objects of interest which your driver can explain to you; there are many by-roads through the sylvan vegetation that a visitor will greatly enjoy.

TOMORROW AT
WHITE HOUSEPRESIDENT TAFT TO OBSERVE
ANNUAL CUSTOM DURING DAY

CHIEF EXECUTIVE EXPECTED TO

SHAKE HANDS WITH MANY

THOUSANDS WHEN THEY PAY

THEIR RESPECTS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31—Between

5,000 and 8,000 Washingtonians, ranging from members of the most exclusive circles of the national capital's society to denizens of the by-streets, will visit the White House tomorrow to shake hands, probably may call at his residence and wish him the compliments of the season.

The New Year's reception is one of the standard functions connected with the executive mansion, which,

hallowed by time, has not been omitted for three score years. When

President Taft planned his Panama trip this year, he specifically stated that he would have to be home by December 31, because he "would not miss the New Year's reception."

The line of callers will commence to form early tomorrow morning—

last year there were half a hundred persons ready at 8 o'clock—and will continue until 2 or 3 o'clock in the afternoon, according to the number received. The callers pass into the White House grounds at the east gate and into the White House through the special "executive" entrance which is thrown open to the public only once a year. They are carefully but inconspicuously examined by a squad of secret service men who are always on guard near the president. Two more government detectives stand on either side of the chief executive.

So far no disturbance has ever been recorded at a New Year's presidential reception, but Chief Flynn's men take no chances and well disguised is the "crook" who gets by them. Suspicious characters are told that the president "is indisposed" or some other excuse is made to get rid of them, while policemen take care of the "drunks"

and New Year's revellers who occasionally are to be found in this line.

Both before and after the "general" reception, the president receives both the army and navy officers, diplomats and others who come, gorgeously attired, to pay their respects to the chief executive,

and then, in the late afternoon, usually sallies forth to make a few personal calls.

Preserving Wood.

Instead of treating wood to preserve it from rot, an inventor of Budapest arrives at the same result by a reversal of the operation, for he treats the earth to surround the posts in such a manner as to destroy all germ and insect life. This process serves as a substitute where it is difficult to secure the treated lumber.

It is called "peristerization."

My Friend Pat

A Story of Colorado and the Emerald Isle

By WILLARD BLAKEMAN

When I was prospecting in the gold fields of Colorado and had made what I believed to be a strike I put some gold dust in one pocket for expenses and specimens for assay in the other, and started on foot down the mountain for Denver. On the way I fell in with a young Irishman, very ragged, with a bundle tied up in a red bandanna handkerchief and a short pipe in his mouth, at which he was pulling lustily.

"Good mornin' to you," he said cheer-

ily. "Good mornin', Pat," I replied.

"How did you know my name was Pat?" he asked.

"By your brogue,"

"Is it very broad?"

"No; but broad enough to give you away as a resident of the Emerald

Isle."

"Northern Irish, is it?"

"I suppose so. What are you doing out in this country?"

"Oh, I came to dig for a fortune."

"And having made it you're going back home to enjoy it?"

"What made you think I've made my fortune?"

"Oh, by your eminently respectable appearance."

"Well, now, that's lucky!"

"Why so?"

"Because I'm sadly in need of a loan, and since I've made a fortune it'll be safe for you to favor me."

I laughed at the Irish wit, and the way the young man had caught me in a trap, I was feeling somewhat set up, for I believed I had struck a fortune myself. Besides we gold seekers in those days were prone to help one another.

"How much do you want?"

"Enough to take me to Ireland—a matter of $100."

"I can't do that much for you, but I might spare $50 to get you to New York. Couldn't you make up the rest in some other way?"

"Half a loaf is better than none."

We went on to Denver together, and I was greatly amused by his humor and an original way he had of viewing things. I sold my mine for enough to make me independent for life and got a few hundred dollars for a first payment. By this time I had become so friendly with my traveling companion that I advanced him the whole sum needed to take him to Ireland. I believed he had made the failure nearly all gold hunters make, and since I had been one of the few fortunate ones

I was ready to give him a tiny bit from my bonanza.

"Where'll I send it?" he asked.

"You needn't send it at all. As soon as I get that deal closed out I'm going to Europe, and I'll see you there."

"Well, you'll find me on the estate of the Earl of Ballygarrah. At any rate, inquire there for me."

"A tenant of his?"

"No."

"What's your place there?"

He hesitated, and it seemed to me he was trying to invent a reply, so I gave him a shake of the hand and said goodby. I felt sure I was making a loan that would never be repaid, but I'd had to invent stories myself about my hole in the ground in order to obtain means to keep on diggins, and I wouldn't have thanked any one to question me too closely. As I turned away from him I saw a peculiar look in his eye.

"Why do you look at me in that way,

Pat?" I asked. I had always called him Pat, though his name was John a little town near the estate of the Earl of Ballygarrah. I rode out to the place in an Irish two wheeled cart and, stopping at the manor house, asked the butler if he could tell me of a man on the estate of the name of John Curran, who about a year before returned to Ireland from America. The servant gave me a blank stare, and led me into a reception room, invited me to be seated and went away.Presently he returned and said that the earl was not at home and he was the only one who could give me the information. Mildly desired that I should make myself at home—in the library if I liked—till his lordship's return. Since I was not averse to nosing among books I assented.An hour passed in this way, when the butler entered and said that lunchoon would soon be ready and asked if I would like to go to my room. Though I didn't like such trespassing, I was not averse to being entertained by an earl and his lady, so I followed the man upstairs. What was my astonishment on entering the room assigned me to see my baggage there.

"How did this come here?" I asked.

"Mildly sent to the inn for it, sir."

I brushed up a bit and went downstairs again. The butler announced luncheon and led me into the dining room. I was received there by a very pretty young woman, who said to me:

"My husband will not return for an hour or two, and since he does not like to have any one who calls during his absence turned away, I have taken it upon myself to make you at home. He is very fond of Americans and would never forgive me if I let one of them go away without some entertainment."

I protested that I had only called to learn of the whereabouts of one John

Curran, whom I had met in Colorado, and the lady replied that the earl would give me any information in his possession on his return. She entertained me delightfully at luncheon, doing everything in her power to make me feel that I was welcome. Her voice was sweet and sounded still sweeter from the rich brogue of an Irish lady. She expressed great interest in America and kept me telling her of the country, the people and our customs. Just as we were about to rise from the table

there was a sound of wheels without.

The front door was thrown open, and a man stalked into the dining room.

Great heavens, he was Pat!

The moment he saw me he advanced and, grasping my hand, gave it a vigorous shake, saying:

"You've come at last, have you? I vowed that if you didn't come soon I'd go back to America to find you." Then, turning to the lady, he added:

"This is the gentleman I've been looking for."

"I supposed he was when he asked for John Curran, who had come from America a year ago."

"Well, I'm John Curran myself," added the host, "and I was Earl of Ballygarrah when we were trudging together in Colorado, though I didn't know it. When I went out there were three lives between me and the title, but two of them had died, and I had heard that the third, my uncle, was very ill. I was trying to get home, but I didn't know what I should find here. I might find an estate waiting for me, and I might not be able to repay your loan; but, by Jove, old man, that was a queer thing for you to do—letting me have that money to get home with."

I said something about his honest countenance, but my conscience was not clear, and I didn't help the matter much. So I made light of the whole matter, mentioning the spirit that animated men who lived in new countries their disposition to help one another their respect for the softer sex and their harshness with anything unmanly. Lady Ballygarrah was much interested in this account of a people she had never mingled with, though I fancied that it was because her husband had been one of them.

The earl then asked where I had put up, saying that he must send a

NEW LAW GOES INTO EFFECT

AT 6 O'CLOCK IN MORNING

PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES
MAY BEGIN USING ENLARGED PRIVILEGE EXTENDED BY THE MAILS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30—Beginning at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning the new parcels post law goes into effect. According to the recently published regulations governing this law any inhabitant of the United States may send through the mail merchandise of certain descriptions, providing it does not weigh more than 11 pounds, and is not more than three feet wide and not more than six feet in length.

These regulations, however, prohibit the mailing of live snakes and birds, intoxicants, pistols and inflammable material. On the other hand the shipper is allowed to mail butter, lard, fish, fresh meat, dressed fowls, vegetables, fruits, berries and similar articles. Fresh meats, however, may be transported only 50 miles and if for any reason the parcels post is unable to deliver this or other perishable matter they can be turned over to charity organizations. Provision is made for insuring parcels and they can also be registered.

One point has been particularly emphasized and that is that all packages will have to be taken to the postoffice by the sender. This means that none of the numbered drug stores sub-stations will be allowed to accept this class of matter, though it may be deposited at any of the larger postoffice stations. The delivery of the packages will be made with the same regularity that now prevails in distributing the mail.

Another interesting feature of the new departure in mail delivery is the institution of the zone system through which the government will fix the charges to be made on packages. In formulating this system the government has used the circle within its circle plan adopted by some European countries.

Separate provision has been made for all packages that weigh four ounces or less. Like the present system of fourth class mail matter there will be a flat rate of a cent an ounce. If a package weighs over four ounces it will be charged the pound rate.

Every clerk and every postmaster handling the parcels post will have a map and a guide book holding the key to the numbered units in the map. The postoffice department has also issued a guide book and map that can be purchased for 75 cents.

A special series of stamps have been engraved and will be used exclusively on this class of mail matter. These stamps will be obtainable tomorrow at any postoffice station.

THE DAILY MARKET REPORT.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31—Stocks opened on an advancing scale this morning with the advance led by General Electric at one and a half points. Lehigh showed a gain of 1 1/2. Amalgamated was up 1 1/8. By noon the prices were irregular. General Electric had lost 1 7/8, and other issues showed fractional losses. Smelting, Utah and American Tobacco were in brisk demand with gains around a point. Cotton was barely steady and at three higher to six lower, steadying after the opening, with January quoted at $12.74 and May $12.63.

The Chicago Markets—

CHICAGO, Dec. 31—May wheat, 94 1/2c; May pork, $18; lard, $9.80; ribs, $9.70; hogs strong and cattle steady.

ARCADE TO HAVE FIRST BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Monday evening, January 6, the first anniversary of the Arcade Amusement Palace occurs, and in celebration of that event so important to the health and growth of Daytona, a Grand Roller Skating Masquerade will be given and all the many amusement features of the Arcade will be in full operation. A supply of novel souvenirs of the occasion have been provided.

That the Arcade has been a healthy youngster is plainly evident, for when the originator of this Amusement Palace first conceived the idea of providing tourists and residents of Daytona with a fixed place where clean and wholesome amusement could be enjoyed, it was not his sole intention to make the Eagle scream for Kreitzberg, but realizing Daytona's need of an amusement place of this character and that such a place would help make Daytona the "One Place" on the God-blessed East Coast of Florida, he backed his judgment with his money; that his judgment was right was seen at once, for the great crowds that patronized his place made it evident that a larger place was two-fold necessary. In order to provide the necessary capital, with which to extend the business Mr. Kreitzberg decided to incorporate the Arcade, which was done in July of this year and the company at once set about enlarging the building and adding the other buildings required to accommodate other attractions, which improvements have now been completed and are open to you on the first anniversary.

Among the many attractions of the Arcade are to be found a skating rink second to none in the south, one of the latest and most up-to-date picture theaters in Florida, which theater is open from 11 a. m. to 11 p. m., offering to the public a continuous show; seven of the best bowling alleys made, new pool and billiard tables, a new and novel ball game, and the dining room in connection with the Arcade is correct in every appointment. In the main lobby of the Arcade will be found refreshment, cigar and candy stands. That the Arcade has been a prominent factor in the development of Daytona is evidenced by many new buildings that have been erected in the immediate vicinity. The Arcade not only furnishes amusement during the winter season, but also helps the many who stay here in the summer to spend many a pleasant evening.—Advertisement.

Hoop La! The joyous tented show is coming to town and young America is all agog over the happy announcement Sun Brothers' tented shows are heavily billed to exhibit here Tuesday, January 7th.

This show is now on its 20th annual tour and is meeting with tremendous success, and the show is giving the greatest of satisfaction.

Many people denounce the tented show and think it an evil that should never be allowed to exhibit, one of the arguments being that they carry immense sums of money out of the country that never come back, and another that they have a bad influence morally.

As far as the moral influences are concerned, we've all been going to shows all our lives, and how many of us have had our morals corrupted therefrom? Of course, now and then a show comes along that carries a criminal and corrupting element, but the best shows, and those which are more largely attended, are usually devoid of this. — (Advertisement.)
